Redmondites Brought All Their Forces to Bear to Effect His Defeat.

THEIR REJOICING IS GREAT

He Will Protest the Election—Cause of Woman Suffrages Makes Poor Showing.

London, Dec. 9.-Tonight's totals show that the coalition parties have thus far secured 244 seats in the new parliament and the Unionists 207 seats. The Unionists have gained 21 constituencies, the Liberals 14 and the Labor

The coalition aggregate is divided as follows: Liberals, 156; Irish Nationalists, 53; Independent Nationalists, 6; Labor members, 29. The parliamentary elections continue their humdrum course, the chief feature, perhaps, being the striking similarity to the returns of January last. Hardly is a gain noted on one side before it is equalized on the other. To-day's news of special interest was the defeat of Timothy Healy at Louth, which constituency he has represented in the house of commons for 18 years. The Redmondites brought all their

The Redmondites brought all their forces to bear in turning out the man who may be said, almost, to be a more victorious opponent of the Irish leader than O'Brien himself. Healy is known as the Ishmael of Nationalist politics and has followed an independent course since the downfall of Parnell, to which he largely contributed.

The successful candidate, Richard Hazleton, who yesterday also was returned unopposed for the North division of Galway, tried to send Healy into retirement in January but falled by 99 votes. The rejoicings in the Redinto retirement in January but failed by 99 votes. The rejoicings in the Red-mond camp over the defeat of O'Brien's chief licutenant, quite overshadows the chagrin at William Redmond's failure to oust O'Brien in Cork City.

'The Unionists won seats in Darwen division of Lancashire and Altrinchum division of Cheshire, while the Liberals captured the south division of Lincoin-shire.

The cause of woman suffrage is mak ing a pitiable showing. Thus far they have had but two candidates and of these one polled but 22 and the other

Other interesting developments day were the capture of the only Na-tionalist seat in Belfast City (West) by Joseph Devlin, one of the Redmond party who recently visited America and the return of Sir Edward Grey, the minister of foreign affairs, for the Berwick division of Northumberland by a majority of three more than he obtained in January.

It is understood that Healy has almost the support of the support

It is understood that Healy has already made a protest against the conduct of the election at Louth alleging gross corruption and intimidation. Exciting scenes marked the polling. Throughout the day there were free fights and incidentally considerable damage to property. Healy himself required police protection.

INQUIRY OPENED INTO FATAL AUTO COLLISION

Stratford, Conn., Dec. 9.—Inquiry has been opened by the coroner into the automobile collision last night in which Jessica Saunders of Mystic was killed and Benj. Casper Thompson of St. Paul, Minn, captain of the Yale Gun club, was injured. The preliminary inquiry showed that the automobile, which is owned and was driven by Steyvesant Peabody, Yale, 1911, of Chicago, was run into by a trolley car. The statement has been made that the automobile was running close to the tracks to keep free from the snow and the trolley car coming up beshind, crashed into it.

When the trolley car struck the machine Miss Saunders was thrown out, and falling across the tracks, was decapliated by the car. Thompson's arm was broken while Peabody and Miss Lillian Foster of Milford were uninjured.

BIBLE USED AS EMBLEM: ELECTION DECLARED VOID

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 9 .- Because the 'drys" of Powell county, Ky., used the Bible as an emblem on their ballots in a recent local option election and carried the county, the state court of appeals yesterday declared the election vold. On each ballot was the picture of an open book with the words "Holy Bible" under it. The "wets" for an emblem used the picture of a whisky bottle and a glass out of which protruded the head of a snake truded the head of a snake

At the first trial witnesses testified that they were told that if they wanted to go to heaven they should make their mark under the Bible. One said he wanted to vote "wet," but feared if he did not heed the sign of the Bible, that the Almighty would wreak vengeance upon him. In the opinion handed down yesterday, it is said a statute prohibits the use of the Bible as an emblem on

Mr. Relf came not only with the strongest sort of references, but his proposition was such a tangible one, that it was demonstrated immediately that he and his associates were willing to show their faith in the enterprise and their ability to manage it, by giving the most substantial guarantees.

The terms on which the contract was closed are not all made public, but Hon. John C. Cutler, who spoke for the committee, states that the conditions are such as will be satisfactory to the local stockholders. The plan is to form a separate company for operating the hotel, the capital of which will amount to $300,000, and will be raised jointly hotel, the capital of which will amount to $300,000, and will be raised jointly by the hotel owners and Mr. Relf and his associates. The hotel company is to finish the building, and the heating plant on North Temple street; this will require an outlay of $1,700,000, the greater part of which has already been raised, and is now being expended. The operating company will raise its capital of $300,000 as rapidly as it is needed, putting the full amount into the most complete, elaborate and up-to-date furomplete, elaborate and up-to-date fur-nishings throughout. Mr. Relf, while still a young man, being only 34 years of age, has passed 21 years of his life in active hotel business. The greater part he has spent in giving personal attention to all the details, especially of the inner part of hotel management. His greatest ex-perience in the hotel business was gained as assistant manager of the big Midland hotel, and later of the famous Baltimore hotel in Kansas City. He had three propositions offered him in various parts of the country, but he came to Salt Lake in September, and was immediately fired with the possi-bilities that lay in the future of the Hotel Utah, so he and his associates at once decided that the Salt Lake investment was the most tempting of all Mr. Relf will make his headquarters here from now on, and, will immediate-ly go to work ordering the supplies, furniture, linen, dishes, etc., with which to fully equip the great hostelry for next year's traffic.

Despondency Induced by Reduced Circumstances and III Health Supposed to be Cause of Act.

Joseph W. Kyle, aged 28 years, who is said to have come from a wealthy New York family, committed suicide at the Albert hotel on West Temple street early this morning by taking bichloride of mercury. He was discovered at 4:30 by the night clerk who in making his rounds noticed the light was still burning in Kyle's room. He rapped on the door but obtained no response and on investigation found Kyle lying dead on Kyle was last seen in the lobby of the hotel about 2 o'clock in the morning. While he appeared to be in good spirits, he had complained throughout the day of suffering with an attack of an allment which had given him considerable trouble in Idaho during the past few days and it was generally known that he had been short of funds for some months, so it is supposed that thes two causes led up to a fit of despondtwo causes led up to a fit of despondency which brought about his rash act. Captain of Detectives R. M. Beckstand and Detective Janney investigated the case and found nothing unusual about his room. There was no note or other evidence that Kyle had premeditated his act. On his clothes were found a number of bills and letters which were responses for requests for financial assistance.
